

PRESS RELEASE

AI Airports International participates in current TAV Holding rights offering

Jersey, 19 February 2009 – AI Airports International (AI) hereby announces that it has exercised its subscription rights in the current rights offering of TAV Holding. TAV Holding increased its share capital from 242,187,500 by 121,093,750 to 363,281,250 shares. Airports International subscribed for 12,230,469 new shares, corresponding to 10.1% of the current issued share capital, and maintains its stake of 10.1%. The new shares were subscribed at a price of TRY 1.00 per share. The total consideration paid by AI Airports International for the new shares amounts to USD 7,596,564. According to Wolfgang Vilsmeier, Chairman of the Board of Directors of AI, the rights issue was subscribed because it was priced for TRY 1.00 which – compared to TAV's share price of about TRY 3.40 at the start of the subscription period – provided significant upside.
